

There are lots of CDs with content designed to introduce children to classical music, ballet and world music. These include the EMI series Classical Clubhouse, retailing at £7.99 for a hardback booklet with CD. Titles include Big space adventure, Dance along, Journey around the world and Magical music box. These complement our spoken word and song CDs of nursery rhymes for the younger listener. We also stock a CD of soothing music for the mother to be and her baby – or babies! Baby to be is also £7.99. Ballet CDs for young ones are also available – I love ballet, a 2CD set @£10.99 and My first ballet album, a CD+DVD package at just £7.99. Moving on from EMI, Naxos titles include Favourite poems for children (£8.99) and Children's favourites, an enchanting collection of favourite songs from the past. Tracks such as I'm A Lonely Little Petunia, Sparky's Music Mix-up, I know an old lady, Popo the Puppet, The King's New Clothes etc, sung by such unique entertainers as Burl Ives, Danny Kaye and Groucho Marx, are sure to bring back memories for the grown-ups (2CD, £14.99). Also from Naxos are Rhythm 4 Kids, a world music sing-along for children (£6.99) and a series of CDs of popular classics (Peter and the wolf, 1001 Nights, Swan Lake, Sleeping Beauty, Carnival of the Animals and others) with narration by much-loved names such as Bernard Cribbins, Brian Cant, Johnny Morris, Dame Edna Everage, June Whitfield, Prunella Scales and Angela Rippon (£6.99 each). We also have CD audiobooks of classic children's stories, nursery rhymes etc. And if you want something not listed above, we can probably get that for you too.
